2009 Featured Artist - Christine MacLellan

Christine MacLellan has always felt the need to create. Growing up in Rhode Island as the oldest of four children, she enjoyed entering art, photography, and dance competitions throughout the first 17 years of her life. She met and married her husband in college and after graduation, his job took them to Japan. It was there their first son was born. The experience of the culture and new family brought a renewed passion to paint and draw.

In 1987, the MacLellan's moved to Durham, NC. Christine worked as a therapist and had two more boys. As her children grew, so did the moments available to spend on her art. In 1996, she opened Rushingwater Studios to offer workshops as well as fine art and commission work. The studio flourishes to this day.

important information

NO DOGS ALLOWED

For the safety of all attendees and Fido's comfort, dogs are not allowed in the festival area.

GETTING TO THE FESTIVAL

Shuttle Bus – The easiest way to get to Lazy Daze is to take one of the free shuttle busses which runs every 15 minutes from Cary Towne Center Mall to Cary Elementary School. Buses pick up at the Sears store parking area. The first bus departs at approximately 8:30am and the last bus leave Cary Elementary at 5:30pm. Cary Towne Center is at the corner of Maynard Road and Walnut Street. It can best be reached via Interstate 40 from Exit 291. Turn into Cary Towne Center Mall – parking is beside the Sears store.

PARKING

Free parking is available at the Cary Town Hall Parking Deck – just an easy two-block walk to the festival! The deck is located on Wilkinson Avenue between Cary Town Hall and the Herbert C. Young Community Center. Handicapped parking is available at Cary Town Hall beside the railroad tracks and at the Cary Elementary School entrance on Kildaire Farm Road. Both of these locations are approximately one block from the festival area.

CTRAN

CTRAN (Cary Transit) bus service will be free townwide on the day of Lazy Daze. Service information at: <http://www.townofcary.org/ctran/ctranoverview.htm>.
